Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation (CMHC):

The First-time Home Buyer Incentive (FTHBI) launched on September 2, 2019, and these numbers represent progress as of January 31, 2020.

For responses to questions (a), (b), (e), (h) and (i), please refer to attached template.

For responses to questions (c), (d), (f) and (g) below, the numbers do not include approved applications that are pending funding.

In response to part (c) the number of approved applicants that have been issued the incentive in the form of a shared equity mortgage is 2,061.

In response to part (d) total value of incentives (shared equity mortgages) under the FTHBI that has been issued is $35.02 million.

In response to part (f) for applicants who have been issued mortgages through the FTHBI, the mean value of the mortgage loan is $17,000.

In response to part (g) the total aggregate amount of money lent to homebuyers through the FTHBI to date is $35.02 million.

Part (j)

The Prime Minister's mandate letter to the Minister of Families, Children and Social Development included direction to "ensure the effective implementation of the new First-Time Home Buyer Incentive and increase the qualifying value in places where houses cost more like the Greater Toronto, Vancouver, and Victoria regions."

The Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation is responsible for the implementation of the First-Time Home Buyer Incentive. Under the National Housing Act, the Minister of Finance is responsible for approving the program's terms and conditions.

The Government is reviewing the Incentive, including with respect to the three markets identified in the mandate commitment, to ensure its effective implementation and that it continues to help eligible first-time home buyers to realize their goal of home ownership.

Partie j)

La lettre de mandat du premier ministre au ministre de la Famille, des Enfants et du Développement social comprenait la tâche d'« assurer la mise en œuvre efficace du nouvel incitatif à l'achat d'une première propriété et augmenter la valeur d'admissibilité dans les endroits où les maisons coûtent le plus cher, comme dans les régions du Grand Toronto, de Vancouver et de Victoria ».

La Société canadienne d'hypothèques et de logement est responsable de la mise en œuvre de l'incitatif à l'achat d'une première propriété. En vertu de la Loi nationale sur l'habitation, le ministre des Finances est responsable d'approuver le mandat du programme.

Le gouvernement examine l'incitatif, y compris en ce qui concerne les trois marchés identifiés dans l'engagement de la lettre de mandat, afin d'assurer l'efficacité de sa mise en œuvre et d'assurer qu'elle continue à aider les premiers acheteurs admissibles à réaliser leur objectif de devenir propriétaire.
